

PSYCHIC DETECTIVES

BIOGRAPHY

The Lenni Joseph trio features the combined musical talents of Luke (Aloisious) Gallen, Matt Benton and Lenni Joseph. It has been said of Lenni J that he has the voice of Jamiroquai and the vibe of David Bowie. A consummate performer who loves to perform live and loves the buzz of energy from the crowd. His amazing charisma and musicality always shines through to create the most beautiful, entertaining and peaceful evening for all who lay their ears on his individual and moving sound!!!

The trio also features the brilliant Matt Benton (guitarist / vocalist) who has performed in front of thousands of crowds throughout Australia, both as a solo artist and with groups such as Ocarina and Mynd Body Soul. Benton released "Satellite ep" in Jan 2005 and has been selling and distributing independently, to great acclaim. He is a multi-instrumentalist who has built a strong fan base on the coast, known for his distinctive style

Luke Gallen began playing saxophone at age 14. Since then he has played with a large range of varying funk, big, and jazz bands including the Ed Wilson big band and taking him to the USA to play with the Ray Barbie Jazz Orchestra. Aloisious has a wide range of experience which has taken him around the globe including London and many different parts of Europe. Now working alongside Lenni Joseph and Matt Benton, the three guys have become one of the most sort after original / covers acts on the south east coast of Oz.
