

There are many words to describe the feeling you get when you attend a Cruisers gig. Believe me, “bored” is not one.

The Cruisers, a group of five extremely talented musicians and performers, has been wowing crowds in Newcastle and surrounding areas for some time now.

They have built up an enviable following with their diverse repertoire and professional delivery and they look forward to entertaining you in the future.

The Cruisers cover songs from the 60’s through to the present day. A quick glance at their current playlist will confirm that this band is guaranteed to have the place jumping.

The members of the band are all fully professional in their approach, with some members having been involved with local and national recording releases.

Above all The Cruisers deliver energetic, unabashed music played at a volume sure to please everyone.

They employ some of the latest technology to ensure you, the audience, receive a aurally dynamic performance without the extreme volume usually associated with such performances.