

The Flattrakkers are a high energy band with a hot roddin' rockabilly song list that consists of around 30 original tunes including 12 tracks off their debut album High Octane.

They also play a heap of other tunes with inspiration from artists and bands such as The Stray Cats, Johnny Cash, Hank III, Sid King and Wayne Hancock. Songs include Stray Cat Strut, Rumble in Brighton, 18 Miles to Memphis, Folsom Prison, Big River, 7 Long Months 49 Days, Shake This Shack, Misery, Johnny Law, Thunderstorms and Neon Signs just to name a few. They have a good handful of more recent tunes such as Old Man Down the Road, Rebel Yell and Tainted Love which they mix through their entertaining sets.
